THE TRADITION

2007 BIG 12 POSTSEASON CHAMPIONS

THE PROGRAM

Winning is an attitude that permeates the entire University of Oklahoma athletics program. Championships and postseason play are synonymous with practically every Sooner sport.

Over the last 13 years, no OU program has accomplished more than the softball team. The architect - head coach Patty Gasso - needed just five years before she took her team to the pinnacle of the sport. And OU hasn't dropped from elite territory since. Gasso and company have created a tradition that rivals nearly any program in collegiate softball and it has only taken 13 years. During that span, OU has averaged nearly 50 wins a season and won - on average - 70 percent of its contests. It's no wonder the Sooners have risen to national prominence so quickly.

THE ARCHITECT

The OU senior woman administrator at the time - Marita Hynes - took a major risk when she chose Patty Gasso to lead the softball program in 1995. Gasso was a successful junior college coach at Long Beach City College without any ties to the Midwest, let alone Oklahoma.

Gasso jumped at the opportunity and immediately began attracting top athletes from each coast and everywhere in between. Players like Kansas native Lisa Carey and California native Heather Scaglione were given the chance to shine in the Sooner spotlight and are perfect examples of players from different backgrounds who have become some of the biggest names in the sport.

DEFINING MOMENT

The program's defining moment came in its first trip to the Women's College World Series in 2000. The Sooners came away victorious. Since then, they have made appearances in five of the last eight WCWS and have become one of the most recognizable teams in the sport.

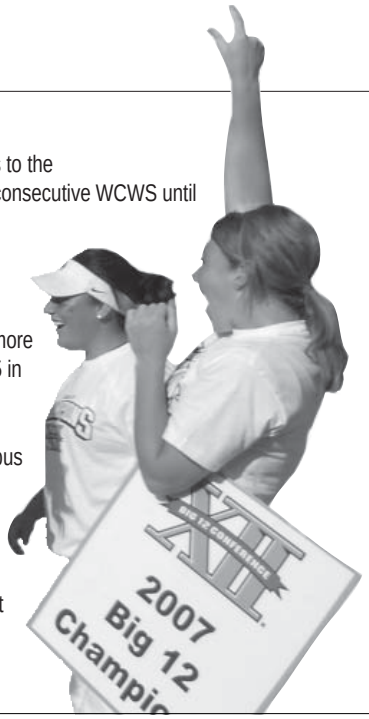
POSTSEASON PRIDE

FIVE WCWS APPEARANCES IN LAST EIGHT YEARS

The numbers tell the story of the Oklahoma softball program's dramatic rise into elite company. The Sooners have made trips to the Women's College World Series in five of the last eight seasons. No other team east of Pac 10 country had ever been to five consecutive WCWS until the Sooners did it.

OU qualified for the national championship tournament by winning five consecutive NCAA Regional Championships. During that run to five straight WCWS, no team has been more efficient in its efforts. Patty Gasso's troops have gone 27-5 in regionals over the last eight seasons.

Since current head coach Patty Gasso stepped onto campus in 1995, the Sooners have won three Big 12 Postseason Championships, seven NCAA Regional Championships and qualified for five WCWS. That is a run that is unparalleled by any program east of Arizona and one that can only be matched by a few out west.



2000 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

SOONERS KNOCK OFF UCLA FOR NATIONAL TITLE

The Sooners swept through their home Regional as they defeated Harvard, Cal State-Northridge and beat Oregon State twice to make their first ever appearance in the World Series. The Sooner magic continued in Oklahoma City as Oklahoma opened the series with a 2-1 win over California and knocked off Southern Mississippi and perennial powerhouse Arizona to advance to the title game against UCLA. Using a 3-1 win over the Bruins, OU claimed its first national title in program history.

2001 REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

OKLAHOMA MAKES IT TWO STRAIGHT

A year after winning the national title and becoming only the second non-West Coast team to win a softball national championship, the Sooners were back in the title hunt again. Once again, OU swept through its home regional after beating Lehigh, North Carolina and No. 12 Washington (twice) to advance to its second consecutive College World Series. The Sooners carried the nation's longest winning streak into the World Sereis, but went 1-2 and were eliminated by LSU in a close 2-1 game.

2002 REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

SOONERS KNOCK OFF TOP-SEEDED TEXAS AND OSTERMAN

The Sooners faced a tough task as they hosted the top-seeded Texas Longhorns in the Norman Regional. Oklahoma opened the Regional with victories over Utah and Texas A&M before facing Texas and Olympic pitcher Cat Osterman. The Sooners avenged a loss to the Longhorns in the Big 12 Tournament as they scored four runs and advanced to the Regional finals with a 4-1 win. Texas A&M knocked off Texas again and OU topped the Aggies 4-1 in the final to advance to its third straight WCWS.

2003 REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

OU TAKES GAINESVILLE REGIONAL, MAKES IT FOUR STRAIGHT

Different from their first three WCWS appearances, the Sooners had to do it on the road as they were sent to Gainesville, Fla., for the NCAA Regional. It didn't phase the Sooners as OU swept through the regional with the closest margin of victory being four runs. Oklahoma knocked off Bethune Cookman, South Florida, Texas-Arlington and Oregon State on its way to its fourth consecutive Women's College World Series appearance.

2004 REGIONAL CHAMPIONS

NO. 1 ARIZONA FALLS, SOONERS ADVANCE TO ANOTHER WCWS

OU faced another daunting task when it learned of its NCAA Regional schedule as it was headed to No. 1 Arizona as the No. 2 seed in the toughest regional in the tournament. Oklahoma faced the No. 1 Wildcats in the winner's bracket and upset Arizona, 3-2. The top-ranked Wildcats were knocked out by Louisiana-Lafayette in the loser's bracket final. The Cajuns, who had to beat the Sooners twice, topped OU in the first game but Oklahoma responded with a 15-0 run rule to advance to its fifth WCWS.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

2000 NATIONAL CHAMPS

The University of Oklahoma earned its first-ever softball national championship by beating UCLA, 3-1, in front of a Women's College World Series record crowd of 8,049 at Don E. Porter Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City on May 29, 2000. The title was the first by a women's athletic program at Oklahoma. The Sooners finished the season with the best record in the country at 66-8.

Oklahoma, the third seed in the WCWS, got on the scoreboard in the third inning with a two-run home run from All-American first baseman Lisa Carey. Freshman shortstop Kelli Braitsch then nailed an RBI single to left field later in the inning to give OU the 3-0 lead.

Jennifer Stewart earned the World Series Most Outstanding Player award, earning victories in all four of OU's WCWS wins. Carey and Braitsch joined Stewart on the all-tournament team. OU became just the second non-West Coast team to win a softball national championship.

THE SHOT HEARD 'ROUND OKLAHOMA

OU All-American Lisa Carey's two-run home run (left) in the 2000 National Championship game instantly became the program's greatest individual moment. The blast gave the Sooners the decisive 3-1 lead and eventually sealed the program's first national championship. It was the second homer in as many days for the junior as her solo shot versus Arizona in the semifinals lifted the Sooners to the title game. The shot was Carey's 20th of the year and tied the OU single-season record which was set in 1999 by Lynette Velazquez.

BIG 12 SUPREMACY

BIG 12 DOMINANCE

No Big 12 softball member has seen that spotlight shine more brightly in its direction than the Oklahoma program. The Sooners have been on the national stage for the Women's College World Series in five of the last eight years. No Big 12 team has made more appearances at the WCWS since the inception of the conference in 1996. In fact, Nebraska and Texas are the only other teams to make more than one trip to the WCWS during that time frame.

It doesn't stop there, though.

OU has more NFCA All-Americans than the rest of the conference. The nation's coaches have voted 26 Sooners onto the NFCA's elite teams since the inception of the Big 12. Only two other teams - Nebraska and Texas with 12 - can claim to have double-digit All-Americans during the Big 12 era.

The Sooners lead the pack in All-Big 12 first team selections as well. They also pace the conference in all-time winning percentage. The list goes on and on (i.e. ... postseason appearances, overall record).

OU set the standard by winning the first Big 12 Championship in 1996. The Sooners upped the ante' in 2000 when they won the conference's only national title. Now, the Sooners continue to pace the league and raise the bar with four return trips and a bevy of honors along the way.

BIG 12 YEAR-BY-YEAR

OU head coach Patty Gasso came on board in 1995 and one year later the Big 12 was born. Since season one, the Sooners have proved to be the class of the conference. They won the first regular season title, they were the first to 50 wins and the first to 100 wins. It's no wonder they lead the conference in all-time winning percentage. Below is a look at OU's year-by-year record in Big 12 play.

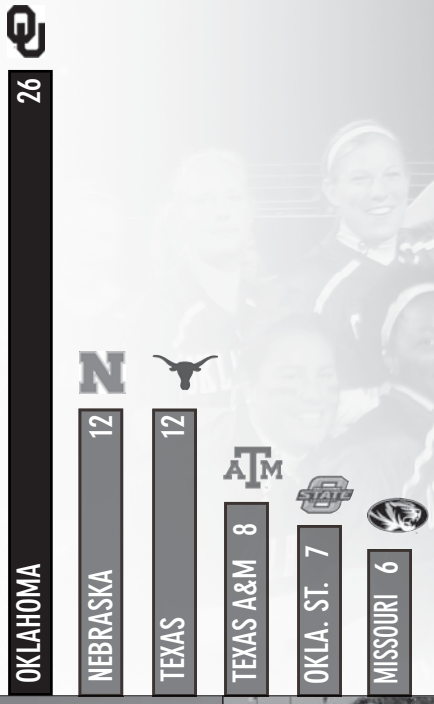
YEAR	RECORD	FINISH	BIG 12 TOURNAMENT
1996	17-5	First	Champions
1997	14-4	Second	Semifinals
1998	12-5	Second	Runner-Up
1999	11-3	First	Quarterfinals
2000	17-1	First	Semifinals
2001	14-2	Second	Champions
2002	14-2	Second	Semifinals
2003	12-6	Fourth	Runner-Up
2004	11-7	Fifth	Semifinals
2005	12-6	Second	Semifinals
2006	8-10	Fifth	Runner-Up
2007	14-4	Second	Champions

BEDLAM BELL

The Sooners' work in the Bedlam series is even more impressive. Since the official start of the Ford Bedlam Series (2001), the trophy hasn't left Norman. OU has won it outright six of the seven years and retained it after a split in 2003. Since the start of Big 12 play, OU has done no worse than a split with Oklahoma State in the regular season series, while claiming the series in 10 of 12 years.

BIG 12 ALL-AMERICANS

The Sooners have certainly made their mark on the Big 12 scene, but they haven't stopped there. OU has raked in more national and regional honors than any other Big 12 program. No area better emphasizes that distinction than All-Americans. Below is a graph that illustrates OU's All-America honors during the Big 12 era.



THREE BIG 12 REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONSHIPS THREE BIG 12 POSTSEASON CHAMPIONSHIPS FIVE WCWS APPEARANCES

INDIVIDUAL HONORS

BIG 12 DOMINANCE

With team accomplishments comes individual recognition. That adage has held true with the Oklahoma softball program, which has raked in just about every honor out there.

Start with the coaching staff. OU head coach Patty Gasso, the architect of the Sooners' move to the top of the softball world, has been named the Big 12 Coach of the Year three times - 1996, 1999, 2000. Gasso and her staff were named Speedline/NFCA Division I National Coaching Staff of the Year in 2000 after claiming the National Championship. The OU coaching staff has also garnered the NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year award on five occasions - 1996, 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2004.

OU players have accumulated more honors than any other conference member. The list starts with All-Americans, of which OU has 28. At the regional level, 68 players have landed on the Midwest team. Among the Big 12 ranks, 47 Sooners have notched first team conference awards. Add in a National Player of the Year finalist, five Big 12 Players of the Year, two Freshman of the Year honorees, two Defensive Players of the Year, one Newcomer of the Year, one Pitcher of the Year, 39 Players of the Week and 21 Pitchers of the Week and the list becomes overwhelming.

The softball program has always produced well-rounded athletes and the academic honors don't take a back seat. In 2000, Lana Moran became the first Sooner in any sport to garner the Academic All-American of the Year (see note on page 11). Seven student-athletes have been named Academic All-Americans. Ten have earned Academic All-District recognition. A total of 36 have been named Academic All-Big Eight and already 53 have earned Academic All-Big 12 acclaim.

NATIONAL POY FINALIST SAM RICKETTS

FIRST NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE YEAR FINALIST

Samantha Ricketts made Oklahoma history in 2007 as she became the first OU player ever to finish as one of the final three contestants for USA Softball's National Player of the Year. Ricketts, who led the nation in RBI during the regular season, joined Arizona State's Kaitlin Cochran and Tennessee's Monica Abbott (the winner) as one of three finalists.

DEFINITION OF A STUDENT-ATHLETE

Oklahoma pitcher Lana Moran took the term student-athlete to new heights with her 2000 Academic All-American of the Year recognition. The lone senior on the 2000 National Championship team, Moran captained the squad as she tallied a 26-2 mark with five shutouts in the circle. Moran's biggest achievement came in the classroom where the San Bernardino, Calif., native compiled a 3.88 GPA in sociology. Moran was a two-time GTE first team Academic All-American, a four-time Academic All-Big 12 selection and the first Sooner in any sport to be named the Academic All-American of the Year.

USA SOFTBALL

The phone in Oklahoma head coach Patty Gasso's office rang three different times. Each time the USA Elite Team selection committee was on the other end. Each time they wanted Gasso to gauge the interest one of her players would have in playing for the 2004 Elite Team.

After the third call, Gasso sat in her office and pondered what had happened over the last month. During that span, three Sooners had been invited (and accepted) to play in the First World University Softball Championships as members of the USA Elite Team, which ranks only behind the Olympic Team. Three Sooners were on the 16-player team, which was a first for any team at OU and only the fourth time any softball program had placed that many players on the squad at the same time.

It was just another sign that OU was among collegiate softball's creme de la creme but it still took some time to hit Gasso.

USA Softball's interest in the Oklahoma program continued during the summer of 2006 as alum Norrelle Dickson was one of 16 collegiate players to play on the USA World Team in Taiwan.

Sooner players have been called on before. Former Sooners Kami Keiter and Heather Scaglione were rookies on the 2004 squad. Dickson, on the other hand, played in five tournaments with the Elite squad. Former Sooner Kristin Vesely played for the USA Junior National Team before her freshman year and alum Leah Gulla (2000-03) was part of the Olympic Trials. Additionally, Samantha Ricketts, as well as alums Christina Enea, Kelli Braitsch and Lisa Carey have received a number of tryouts.

Sooner softball has carved its niche into USA Softball and Gasso should be ready for future calls.

SOONER PIPELINE

SOONERS IN THE PROS

As the sport of softball has risen in popularity over the last decade, the number of opportunities for collegiate athletes to play following their career has skyrocketed.

The Sooners have watched numerous alums graduate to the professional ranks. As far back as Jill Most, Jennifer Jaime and Lynnette Velasquez, OU has made an impact on the highest stage of softball.

During the inaugural National Pro Fastpitch College draft, three former Sooners were selected. Erin Evans made the most of her opportunity as an All-Star for the Houston Thunder, who had the best record during the league's first season. Leah Gulla and Christy Ring were also drafted by Colorado in the first NPF draft.

Most recently, Norrelle Dickson was picked as the sixth overall pick by the Akron Racers and was named an All-NPF selection in her first season with the racers.

Kristin Vesely was the fourth overall pick in the 2006 NPF draft and led the New England Riptide to the NPF title in her first season.

In 2005, Oklahoma led all programs with three draftees in the 2005 NPF Senior Draft as Heather Scaglione was the first catcher selected and Kami Keiter (11th) and Christina Enea (13th) were also drafted.

GASSO'S COACHING TREE

Numerous student-athletes have come to Oklahoma hoping to continue their softball career, not just on the field as an NCAA athlete, but as a coach when they finish their careers in Norman. OU head coach Patty Gasso has always encouraged her players to be active in the sport when their time as a Sooner has come to a close.

After 13 years with OU, Gasso has proteges sprinkled all over the country. 10 former players are coaching at the collegiate level, as well as two former assistant coaches and a manager. Other alums are coaching on the high school or travel ball scene.

The Sooner pipeline continues to grow with the graduation of each class. Add in three assistant coaches who have moved on to other opportunities and the OU program is doing its part to continue the development and promotion of softball inside and outside of Oklahoma's borders.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

MEDIA ATTENTION

The Women's College World Series has been the biggest event in Oklahoma over the last few years. The Oklahoma softball team capitalized on that exposure by winning in its first trip to the WCWS in 2000.

Patty Gasso's squad enjoys more coverage than arguably any program in the country. The unique media landscape in Oklahoma has something to do with that. Five straight WCWS has been a bigger influence.

Perhaps nothing better illustrates the softball program's rise than a June 2004, story in the largest paper in the state, The Oklahoman. Columnist Jenni Carlson boldly proclaimed head coach Patty Gasso as the best coach at the University. Carlson ranked Gasso's achievements above those of football coach Bob Stoops, basketball coaches Sherri Coale and gymnastics coach Mark Williams. One opinion sparked argument throughout the state.

Gasso couldn't buy publicity that good. But she and her teams have certainly earned it.

TAKING CENTER STAGE

Being a major Division I athletics program in a state without a high scale professional team has its advantages. Oklahoma athletics receive more coverage than any other entity in the state.

Sooner softball receives a big slice of that coverage. Behind football and the basketball programs, softball and baseball are next on the food chain. The fact that softball and baseball are on the same level at OU says a lot about the success of Patty Gasso's program.

The media attention peaked to a near all-time high in 2004 (just short of the 2000 national championship season) when the Sooners advanced out of the toughest regional in the country, in the process knocking off No. 1 Arizona and No. 9 Louisiana-Lafayette. The Sooners were not only the biggest story in Oklahoma, but they stole the spotlight on the national level of collegiate softball.

Below are a few examples of the many front page stories in the Oklahoman and the Norman Transcript.

BEST COACH IN BIG 12 HISTORY

A pioneer and legend after 13 years. Better believe it.

Oklahoma head coach Patty Gasso has blazed the trail for the Big 12, which has quickly gained national softball respect in just 12 years of existence. No person has been more responsible for the conference's rise in prominence than the winningest coach in its history. With five trips to the Women's College World Series in the last eight years, OU has not only earned respect but validated an entire conference. Her work at OU has done more than just net gains for her employers and the league.

The Midwest was a dormant recruiting area when she arrived in 1995. Presently, the Midwest and South (especially Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana and Florida) rank a very close second to California.

All that without even mentioning her accomplishments. In 2003, Oklahoma was named the fifth best program all-time by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association. Go back to 1994, before Gasso arrived in Norman, and it's a guarantee that OU doesn't even sniff the top 25. During her tenure, the Sooners have reached the postseason every year. They have claimed six Regional Championships, made five WCWS appearances and claimed one national championship.

Not many coaches around the land can claim those credentials. Then again, if you tally the combined accomplishments of many conferences, they can't either.

So what's next? It would be a mistake to say more of the same. This program has risen dramatically for 13 years and Gasso doesn't intend to slow the pace one bit.

Titles like "Coaching Legend" and "Best Coach In Big 12 History" are usually reserved for retired leaders. In Gasso's case, there is no need to wait, she has already earned both titles.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH MELYSSA LOMBARDI

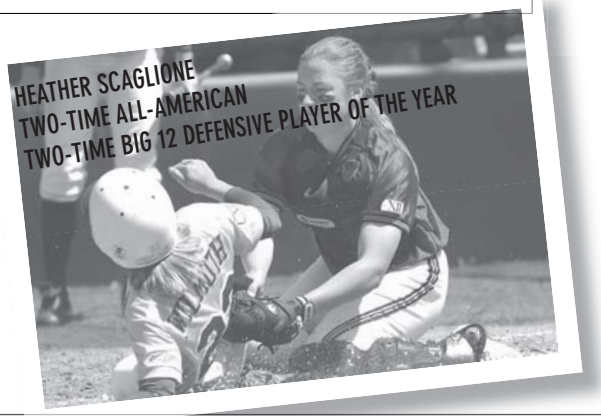
The same attributes that drew OU head coach Patty Gasso to Melyssa Lombardi as a player are the reasons that she has excelled as the pitching coach on the Oklahoma staff.

Lombardi is renowned for her work ethic and softball mind. Watch her give pitching signs to her catchers and you'll quickly learn how complex her mind is. Listen to Lombardi break down opposing hitters on film or observe her meticulously chart her pitching staff and the work ethic will come beaming through. Those attributes are innate.

It's no wonder that Lombardi has been on staff for 11 years, and despite being one of the hottest head coaching prospects in the country, she has shown little desire to venture out of Norman.

All those traits have translated into one of the nation's best pitching staffs year in and year out. Four pitchers have garnered All-America honors five times under her tutelage and the staff has continually ranked among the best in the Big 12 and country.

9	Lombardi has coached different Sooners of the OU battery to nine All-America honors. Two catchers and four pitchers have received All-America honors under Lombardi's tenure.
1	Lombardi's current protege, Lauren Eckermann, became the first OU player to earn Big 12 Pitcher of the Year. Eckermann, also an All-American, shared the award with TAMU's Amanda Scarborough in 2007.
20	The number of All-Big 12 honors given to OU's pitchers and catchers since Lombardi became an assistant coach in 1998. A pitcher and a catcher duo havs earned All-Big 12 honors eight of the 10 years Lombardi has been at Oklahoma.



NEW ADDITION TO OFFENSIVE JUGGERNAUT

The Oklahoma offense has been one of the best in the Big 12 and the country in the last five years. The Sooners have ranked in the top two in the conference in hitting percentage in the last five years and have finished first three of those years.

The high-octane offense looks to continue in 2008 as head coach Patty Gasso acquired another top offensive mind in the offseason. Tripp MacKay joined the Sooner coaching staff over the summer, replacing former hitting coach Howard Dobson, who became the head coach at Southern Miss.

MacKay, a former baseball All-American, has returned to the collegiate level after serving as a private hitting instructor in Dallas for the last seven years. MacKay's presence has already been felt as the Sooner offense took off during the fall season, recording a team hitting percentage of .455 with 19 home runs in 10 games. With the addition of MacKay, it looks like OU's offense will once again be one of the best in the country.

OU SOFTBALL COMPLEX

THE COMPLEX

Marita Hynes Field at the OU Softball Complex has been one of the sparkling gems of the sport since it opened its doors in 1998. OU was one of the first schools outside of the Pac 10 to make the commitment to its softball program by building an exclusive facility for the sport. The trend caught on and Oklahoma was again leading the pack in women's athletics as new stadiums have sprung up across the national landscape.

The most recent improvement at the OU Softball Complex was synthetic waterproof dirt on the infield and warning track, which allows Patty Gasso's team to train on the field minutes after a rain storm has moved through.

The complex provides permanent chair back and bleacher seating with a capacity of 1,000; a concessions building and rest rooms; press box; VIP lounge and a ticket office. The complex is equipped with a state-of-the-art underground drainage system, sprinkler system and batting cages. A paved parking lot was in place in time for the 1999 season and OU added the Robert E. Young & Family Softball Locker Room in 2002. The field was named for former softball coach and senior woman administrator, Marita Hynes, in 2004.

The community of Norman has embraced the program and placed it among the annual national leaders in average attendance.

MARITA HYNES FIELD

SOFTBALL PIONEER

It's a tough task to find a single individual who has had more effect on the collegiate sport of softball and its rise in popularity than Marita Hynes. The longtime fomer senior woman administrator for Oklahoma actually served as the program's second softball coach. When she retired from coaching to begin a career as an administrator, she remained active in the softball world. She spearheaded the fund-raising campaign to build the OU Softball Complex and oversaw its construction. During those years, she helped lure the Women's College World Series to Oklahoma City. For all her contributions to OU and beyond, the athletics department officially christened the playing surface as Marita Hynes Field on April 24, 2004.

STRENGTH COACH SARAH CAHILL

THE PROGRAM

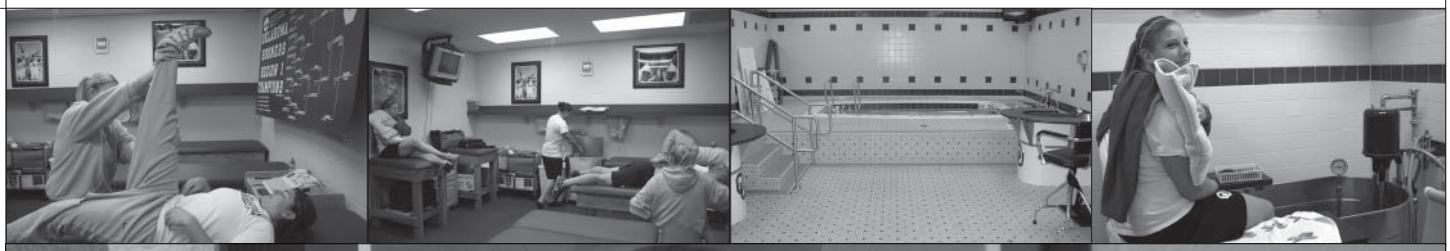
Oklahoma's weight training program is a pioneer in the development of strength and conditioning, and is a vital part of the Sooners' traditional success. OU strength and conditioning coaches utilize their expertise along with a wide array of equipment and tests to produce national championship-caliber athletes.

Evaluation, goal-oriented programs, supervision and state-of-the-art facilities help Oklahoma athletes become bigger, faster, stronger and more flexible. The Robin Siegfried & Family Strength and Conditioning Complex, located in the Barry Switzer Center, has 13,000 square feet to facilitate the intensive training of OU athletes.

The objective of the strength and conditioning program is to ensure each student-athlete in every sport is provided with a sound in-season and off-season program. This program of activity includes strength, conditioning, flexibility and nutrition. A strength and conditioning coordinator for each sport is provided to assist athletes in reaching the highest possible training levels.

Located at the south end of Oklahoma Memorial Stadium, the Barry Switzer Center houses administrative offices, the football locker room, the equipment room, the 8,000-square-foot Henry Freede Sports Medicine Facility and the 7,000-square-foot Touchdown Club Legends Lobby in addition to the Siegfried Strength and Conditioning Complex.

SPORTS MEDICINE



COMPREHENSIVE REHABILITATION

The Oklahoma Athletics Department feels a strong responsibility to help its athletes reach and maintain their optimum health and achieve conditioning goals. For this reason, OU has developed excellent training and conditioning programs to lessen the possibility of injuries. However, should injuries occur, the department is committed to a comprehensive rehabilitation program. Complete athletically-related medical services are provided to Oklahoma student-athletes by team physicians and OU's certified athletic trainers. The University of Oklahoma obtains the services of the best medical consultants available.

The base of operation for the Sooners' medical care is the state-of-the-art Henry J. Freede, M.D. Sports Medicine Center in the Barry Switzer Center. Head athletic trainer Scott Anderson says the addition to the Barry Switzer Center has allowed the university to upgrade to a new edition of rehabilitation equipment that can best benefit the student-athletes. From simple thero-bands to taping tables, the new facility offers everything a school can have or hope to have. The Sooner training room is equipped to perform isokinetic joint evaluation for preventive medicine and for post-injury rehabilitation. The therapy room is supplied with the latest modalities on the market.

A total team effort is the key to OU's efficiency in preventing, treating and rehabilitating injuries sustained by student-athletes. These measures keep Sooner athletes at their highest level of performance as they compete for championships.

"Sports medicine is a team effort," says Anderson. "The stated goal of athletic training at Oklahoma is, first of all, care for the student-athletes, thereby granting our sports a competitive advantage and ultimately greater esteem for the entire program. To that end, we are blessed with a full complement of self-sacrificing medical professionals working on a regular basis with our athletic training staff."

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

PREPARING LEADERS FOR TOMORROW

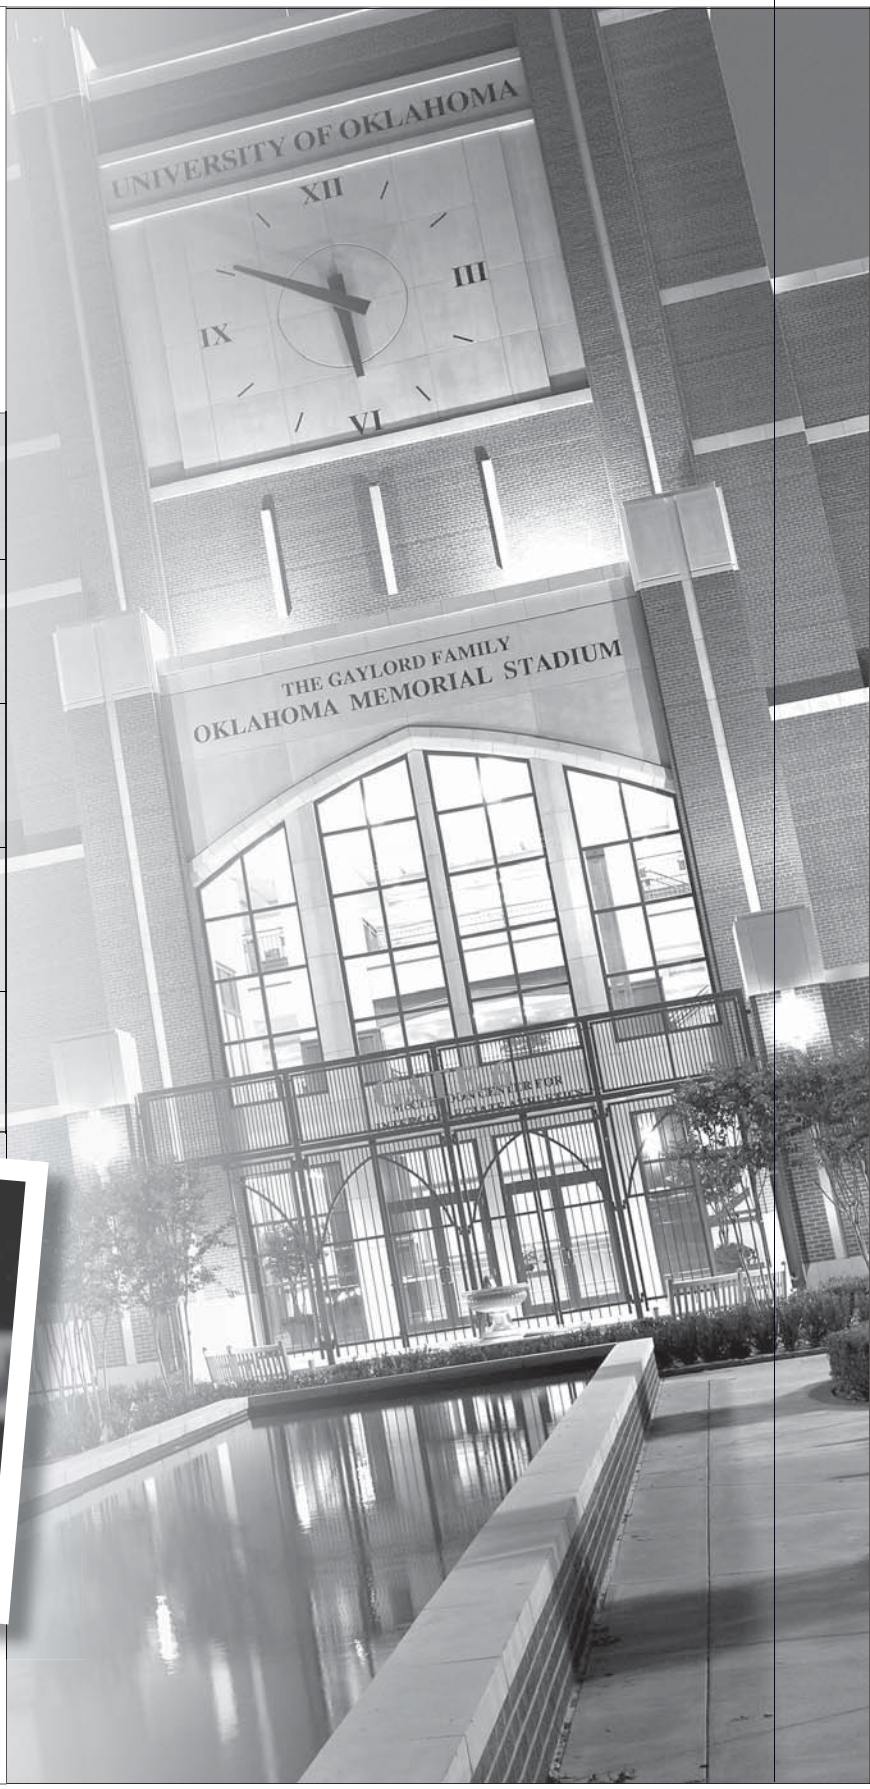
The recent Gaylord Family - Oklahoma Memorial Stadium expansion and improvement included remodeled office space in the facility's north end. The largest piece of that project was the Prentice Gautt Academic Center. Some 35,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Sooner student-athletes.

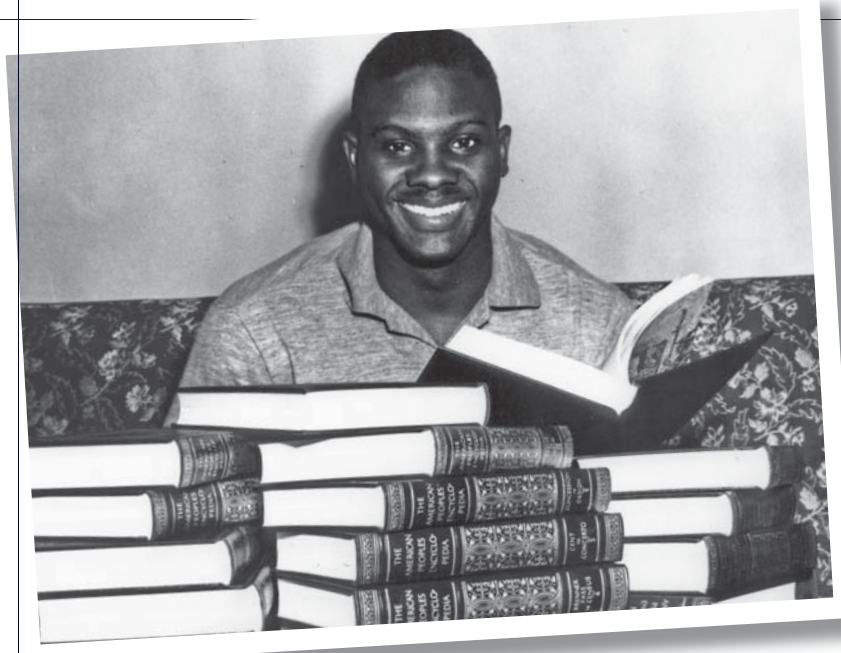
Indeed, there is considerable emphasis on classroom performance at OU. The center staff has achievement as its focus, a fact that is reflected in a graduation rate that exceeds that of the general student body. In addition to its academic work, the staff assists in several life skills areas designed to enrich students in a broad range of tasks.

2	The Prentice Gautt Academic Center maintains two computer labs for OU student-athletes with more than 100 desktop units and over 40 laptops available to check out.
35	Some 35,000 square feet are dedicated to the academic pursuits of Oklahoma student-athletes at the Prentice Gautt Academic Center in the stadium's north end.
38	Legendary running back Prentice Gautt wore No. 38 during his Sooner career from 1956-59. The first African-American student-athlete to receive a scholarship at OU, the academic center is named in his honor.
84	The graduation rate for University of Oklahoma student-athletes who complete their eligibility is 84 percent.
90	The Prentice Gautt Academic Center is available more than 90 hours per week for OU student-athletes.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

Former OU softball player Lana Moran became the first Sooner in any sport to be named Academic All-American of the Year. Moran led the Sooners to the 2000 national title and compiled a 3.88 GPA during her time at Oklahoma.



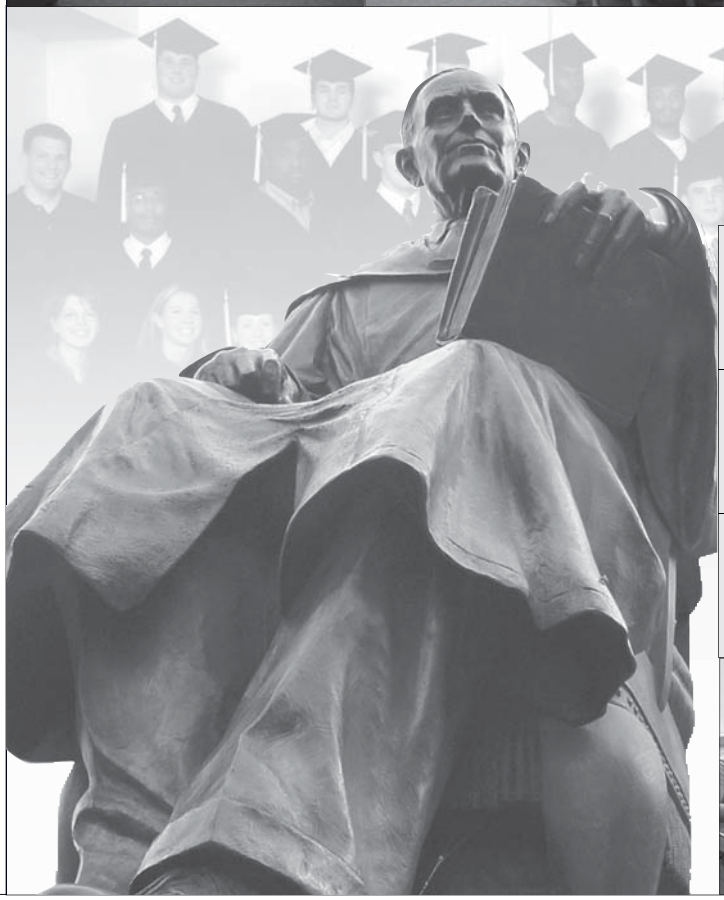


THE LEGACY OF PRENTICE GAUTT

The OU Academics Center that today's student-athletes use everyday now bears the name of the man who left an indelible legacy for Sooner Athletics and helped change a society in the process.

"It is appropriate that this center be named after Prentice Gautt," University of Oklahoma President David L. Boren said. "His personal values and character, along with his leadership as associate commissioner of the Big 12 Conference, continue to bring pride to his alma mater.

"His personal example of quiet courage, grace under pressure, and dedication to the university helped open the doors of opportunity for countless number of African-American and minority student-athletes who have followed him into collegiate athletics."



1	Fomer Sooner Lana Moran was selected as the top softball student-athlete in the nation in 2000 when she was named the Academic All-American of the Year.
7	CoSIDA Academic All-America honors under head coach Patty Gasso.
4	OU has collected 56 Academic All-Big 12 honors during the Gasso era, an average of 4.6 per year.

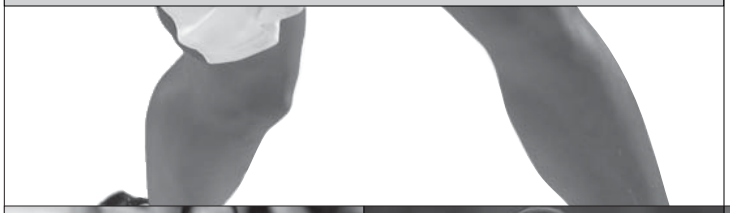
SOONER SUCCESS

INSPIRING CHAMPIONS TODAY

2007 NATIONAL POY COURTNEY PARIS

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Oklahoma women's basketball team finished the 2006-07 season with a 28-5 record, a No. 9 ranking, the Big 12 regular season championship, the Big 12 postseason championship and a Sweet 16 appearance. The Sooners became the first program in Big 12 history to collect back-to-back regular season and postseason championships. The success in 2007 gives the Sooners more Big 12 regular season (5) and postseason (4) championships than any team in the Big 12. Courtney Paris, the AP National Player of the Year and consensus All-American, led the Sooners.



VOLLEYBALL

The Sooners recorded their second straight 20-win season, going 22-10 in 2007. Oklahoma was once again the surprise of the Big 12 as the Sooners were picked to finish ninth in the conference during the preseason but finished fourth in the league with a 13-7 mark. Under fourth-year coach Santiago Restrepo, the Sooners were selected for their second consecutive NCAA Tournament and fifth trip in school history..

CROSS COUNTRY

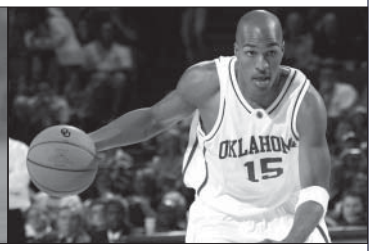
Jessica Eldridge closed out her impressive OU cross country career with a fourth consecutive trip to the NCAA Cross Country Championships. Eldridge was named to the 2007 Division I Midwest All-Region Cross Country team, along with sophomore Jon Grey and freshman Kevin Schwab, after the trio recorded top-25 finishes in the NCAA Midwest Regional. All scoring Sooner men finished in the top 50 at the NCAA Midwest Regional as the team finished fifth.

SOCCER

Oklahoma finished the 2007 season with a 6-10-3 overall record and a 2-7-1 mark in Big 12 play. Eleven of the Sooners' games were decided by one goal or less. Freshman Whitney Palmer was named to the All-Big 12 Newcomer Team after tallying six goals. She is the third Sooner in school history to be named to the team and the first since Lauren MacIver since 2002.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Following the release of three signed recruits from their letters of intent, a team of 10 scholarship players and two walk-ons finished the 2006-07 season with a 16-15 record. OU's winning record was the program's 26th straight, preserving the longest streak among Big 12 schools. The Sooners held opponents to just 59.6 points a game, the lowest figure by an OU team in 29 years.



FOOTBALL

The Sooners (11-2) became the first football team in the Big 12 Conference to win back-to-back Big 12 Championships as Oklahoma knocked off No. 1 Missouri, 38-17, in the 2007 Big 12 Championship game in San Antonio. The Sooners claimed the program's fifth conference title in eight seasons and 41st overall. Oklahoma narrowly missed playing in the national title game as it finished in third in the final BCS standings. However, the conference champions advanced to their sixth BCS bowl game in the past eight seasons with a match up against West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. The squad also made history with its ninth consecutive bowl game, the longest stretch in the program's history.

PREPARING LEADERS FOR TOMORROW

MEN'S GYMNASTICS

The Oklahoma men's gymnastics team pushed host Penn State to the final event at the 2007 NCAA Championships, but couldn't overcome the Nittany Lions. The Sooners, gunning for the program's first NCAA three-peat, settled for national runner-up. Jonathan Horton made history at the event, winning NCAA event titles on the high bar and floor exercise. With five career individual national titles, Horton broke Bart Conner's school record. Oklahoma once again led the nation, adding 11 total All-Americans at the meet. \

WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

Led by senior Brittney Koncak-Schumann who won a share of the floor exercise title, OU finished second at the Big 12 Championships on March 31 in Columbia, Mo. The Sooners headed back to Tuscaloosa for the NCAA Central Regional on April 14. The final qualifying spot was decided by a tiebreaker with Oklahoma edging the Cyclones to earn a school-record fourth straight trip to the NCAA Championships. The Sooners finished eighth at the NCAA Championships, the highest finish in program history.

WRESTLING

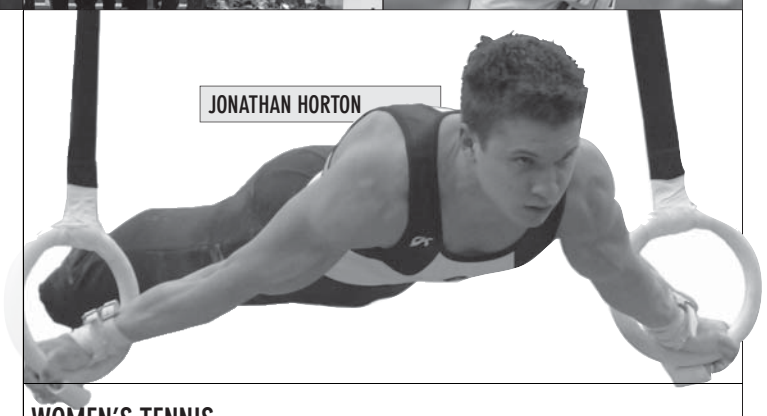
Head coach Jack Spates, in his 14th season at the helm, led the team to an 11-7 record and an 0-5 record in Big 12 competition. Of the 18 matches, 11 were against top 25 teams, including all four Big 12 teams. For the second consecutive season, OU produced individual Big 12 champions. Led by All-American Sam Hazewinkel, six Sooners qualified for the NCAA Championships.

BASEBALL

The 2007 Oklahoma baseball team narrowly missed the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2003 after finishing the season with a 34-24 overall record. The Sooners finished seventh in the Big 12 regular season standings with an 11-16 mark and went 2-1 in the 2007 Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship. A strong showing in the Big 12 Championship, which included wins over No.11 Missouri and No. 21 Oklahoma State, was not enough for the Sooners to qualify for their fourth straight NCAA Tournament.

MEN'S TENNIS

Led by a roster that included just one senior, the 2007 Oklahoma men's tennis team was one of the most successful in program history. OU faced a tough schedule with 19 of its 29 matches versus ranked opponents. With four of eight players new to the team, OU head coach Paul Lockwood quickly blended the team into a national contender. The Sooners climbed from No. 54 to No. 23 in the ITA polls. The jump into the top 25 ended a 15-year absence.



JONATHAN HORTON

WOMEN'S TENNIS

A seasoned squad knows how to win at home and that was the case for the Sooner women's tennis team. OU finished with a 5-2 home mark and was 9-13 overall for the season. A 4-3 win over Kansas, the second of the season, sent the Sooners to the quarterfinal round of the Big 12 Championships. The season ended with a 4-0 loss to Texas A&M in that round. Oklahoma ended the season with a 5-6 record in the Big 12, good for a sixth place finish.

MEN'S GOLF

With eight of the OU men's golf team's 10 players earning tournament spots for the Sooners for the first time in their collegiate career, it would be easy to chalk up last season as a learning experience and look to next year. Head coach Jim Ragan had other ideas as he made sure the Sooners finished the season the same way they had every year of his OU tenure – earning a berth in NCAA postseason play.

WOMEN'S GOLF

The women's golf team posted nine top-10 team finishes on the season, the most since 2002-03. Juniors Heather Wright and Jacques remained constant in the lineup and produced three and five top-20 finishes, respectively. Jacques saved her best for last, firing a three-round 229 in the Big 12 Championships. She earned a spot on the Big 12 All-Tournament team with her fourth place tie.

TRACK AND FIELD

A program-record 14 men and women earned All-America honors at the NCAA Track & Field Outdoor Championships to cap one of the most successful seasons in school history. The men's team won its first Big 12 Championship, the first conference title for OU in 29 years, and NCAA Midwest Region titles. The women's team recorded a program-best finish of sixth at the Big 12 Outdoor. Head coach Martin Smith was named the Big 12 and Midwest Region Men's Coach of the Year.

NORMAN & OKC

NORMAN - HOME OF THE SOONERS

Norman is an ever-changing city of nearly 100,000 residents. Located in the heart of the state, it has grown to become the third largest city in Oklahoma. Despite its continuous growth, it has maintained the spirit and serenity of a small, close-knit community.

Since the Oklahoma Land Rush of 1889, Norman has grown into a popular and smart city. The spirit of Norman and its citizens is unwavering and uncompromising. While other towns were clamoring to become the state capital, Norman residents wanted to have the first state university. When the first OU president got off the train and saw a prairie, he saw opportunity.

As home to the state's premier educational institution, Norman boasts an excellent quality of life and is a city that thrives on and celebrates the diversity of its community.

Legendary University of Oklahoma football coach Barry Switzer called Norman "a university town with a championship spirit."

Norman continually exhibits its love for sports by hosting numerous local and national athletic events.

1	The Oklahoma City metropolitan area has a population of more than one million people. OKC is the largest city in the state and the 29th largest city in the nation.
3	Norman is the third largest city in the state with more than 100,000 residents. Despite its growth, the city nurtures and maintains its small, college town atmosphere.
18	Located just 18 miles north of Norman, the state's capital, Oklahoma City, offers all the trappings of a large metropolitan area within an easy drive.
70	The average annual temperature in Norman. The area enjoys a temperate climate with mild winters. Four distinct seasons with a warm spring and fall.
196	Due to its central location, Norman is a quick 196-mile drive from Dallas. Roughly 20 percent of OU's students are from Texas and choose to come north.

OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City, the state's capital, is located just 18 miles north of the Norman campus. It was the first city settled in the Land Run of 1889 because of its position at the center of the state.

Oklahoma City offers a variety of attractions and activities different from any other place in the country.

Oklahoma City sprawls across 625 square miles of America's heartland. The city's metro population numbers more than one million -- a third of the entire state's population.

Oklahoma City has become a haven for exciting sports action. It is home to three minor league teams and is the host of the NCAA College Softball World Series.

Located just southeast of downtown, Bricktown is Oklahoma City's entertainment and dining district. Restaurants with a total capacity of more than 4,000 seats, shopping, and a generous helping of turn-of-the-century charm has turned Bricktown into a hotspot for Oklahoma City nights.

BACK FOR MORE

OKLAHOMA RETURNS SEVEN STARTERS AND THREE ALL-AMERICANS FROM A 2007 BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP SQUAD THAT FELL JUST SHORT OF THE WCWS.

The Sooners enter he 2008 season with strong momentum after completing one of the best seasons in school history in 2007. The experienced group that returns three All-Americans and seven starters from last year's Big 12 Championship squad is even more determined and committed heading into the season opener after falling just short of the Women's College World Series last season with a losses in the Norman Super Regional.

"This team was probably one of the most dedicated squads I have had in the offseason," head coach Patty Gasso said. "I think a switch turned in their heads and they realized the only way to get back to the World Series is to spend much more time working on their own. I'm excited to see how they take that offseason dedication into the regular season and how well we benefit from that."

Oklahoma has the tools to make its sixth trip to the WCWS in the last nine years as it returns 55 percent of its offense, including last year's nation's RBI leader in Samantha Ricketts. While the offense is stacked with four of its top five hitters returning, the Sooners are also solid in the circle.

The entire four-member pitching staff returns, which includes All-American and Co-Big 12 Pitcher of the Year Lauren Eckermann. The right-hander returns for her senior season after tying a school record with 37 wins in 2007.

THE LINEUP

Key Returners
Samantha Ricketts (.415 Avg, 18 HR, 81 RBI)
Susan Ogden (.381, 36 RBI, 10 Doubles)

Similar to last season, Gasso's hurdle will be trying to make room for all the bats she has on her squad. The young squad was an offensive juggernaut last season, topping all Big 12 schools in seven different offensive categories and finishing fourth in the nation in batting average and scoring.

The biggest question mark of 2008 will be who will replace three-time All-American and 2007 Big 12 Player of the Year Norrelle Dickson. The table setter ended her career at Oklahoma as one of the best leadoff hitters to play for the Crimson and Cream. The four-year starter is the OU career leader in at-bats, runs scored, hits, batting average, stolen bases and on-base percentage.

"Norrelle was vital to our success during her time here and was a key reason Sam (Ricketts) led the nation in RBI last season," Gasso said. "It is so important to get our lead off on base because we have such a strong middle of the lineup that can bring people across the plate."

The top two spots in the lineup remain competitive as Gasso will aim to find a replacement for the leadoff position as well as a possible lefty in the two-hole, which would protect base stealers.

OUTLOOK

Possible replacements for the leadoff spot inlude speedy underclassmen Iver McDonald and Krystle Huey. Amber Flores, who hit .325 in the three spot as a freshman starter last year, is also an option.

Gasso believes the bulk of the lineup (spots 3-7) is completely interchangeable with all the power returning from last year. In addition, OU's powerful offensive lineup doesn't present many options for opponents to pitch around. The Sooners benefitted greatly from that last season and look to capitalize on it again in 2008.

Highlighting the heart of the order is Ricketts, one of three finalists for USA Softball National Player of the Year as a sophomore in 2007. The cleanup hitter owned a .415 batting average with 18 home runs and only 11 strikeouts last year while setting a school record with 81 RBI in a season.

Ricketts paired with fellow All-American Susan Ogden as a tough tandem for opponents. Opponents couldn't pitch around Ricketts last season as they would face Ogden, who hit .381 with 10 doubles and 36 RBI in the fifth spot of the lineup.

In addition to Ricketts and Ogden, Gasso expects Traci Dickenson, Lindsey Vandever and Savannah Long to be strong contributors to the Sooner lineup as well. Dickenson was arguably the best nine-hole hitter in the country last year as the All-Midwest Region selection owned 14 home runs with 41 RBI in the final spot of the lineup.

"Traci was perfect in that spot for us last year. Opponents didn't expect such power at the bottom of the lineup and it took off a lot of the pressure," Gasso said. "However, her numbers were so strong last year that we are definitely going to move her up in the heart of the lineup so she can get more at-bats."

With one season under her belt, Vandever returns for another year after hitting .287 with six home runs and 24 RBI. Veteran senior Long should also provide stability in the lineup as she owns power and speed with six home runs and seven stolen bases last season.

New faces could make up the latter part of the lineup. In addition to the speedy Huey, Chana'e Jones is also vying for a spot in the lineup. Huey's speed puts pressure on the defense and she could be called upon in pinch running situations. Jones not only brings speed but also showed some very strong power during her fall campaign with the Sooners.

"This freshman class has a lot of high expectations to meet but I've been comforted by the fact that the upperclassmen have demanded them to hang with them and they have, step for step," Gasso said.

THE INFIELD

Key Returners
Savannah Long (Shortstop, 6 HR, 7-11 SB)
Traci Dickenson (Second Base, .298, 14 HR)

Oklahoma will have a very similar look in the infield this season after losing only one infielder from last season. The Sooners will have to replace Dickson, a consistent starter at third base for the Sooners. Freshman Dani Dobbs and junior Jessica Legendre are in the heaviest competition for the position and it most likely will depend on each player's bats throughout the season.

"This could be a position that could go back and forth throughout the season," Gasso said. "Both worked extremely hard in the fall and the player who is producing the best at the plate will have the advantage."

Highlighting the infield is flame-throwing, all-everything shortstop Long. The senior was named the captain of the squad for the 2008 season and will be the leader for the infield and she is the only senior among the infield positions.

Anchoring the right side of the field are Dickenson and Ricketts, who both bring experience to second and first, respectively. Freshman Wendy Trott could also fill in for Ricketts at first as they are interchangeable at the first base and designated player positions.

THE OUTFIELD

Key Returner
Amber Flores (Left Field, .325 Avg., 41 RBI)

Unlike the infield, the outfield could look very different for the Sooners this season. Flores will be the lone starter returning as the sophomore will remain in her spot in left field. As a freshman, Flores only committed one error in 61 starts in left field.

The Sooners will have to find a replacement for last year's senior center fielder Jamie Fox, the leader in the outfield. Huey and McDonald will once again be in competition for the centerfield spot.

Right field will also have a new look as Jones and utility player Ogden could also see some time at right. Ogden, a senior, saw a lot of action in the fall in the outfield and can also play catcher or designated player. Placing Ogden in right field remains a way to keep the All-American's bat in the lineup.

Freshman Haley Anderson and junior Jeannie Douglas will provide backup relief in the outfield while Trott could also see action in right.

THE BATTERY

Key Returners
Lauren Eckermann (RHP, 37-5, 1.66 ERA)
Lindsey Vandever (Catcher, .287 Avg., 24 RBI)

As is the case for any collegiate softball team, OU's pitching will have the biggest impact on the Sooners this season. However, if the Sooner staff continues from where it left off last year then Gasso and the Sooners should be excited about another strong year.

All four members of the Oklahoma pitching staff return for the 2008 season with Eckermann leading the way. The Big 12 Co-Pitcher of the Year owned a 1.66 ERA last season and a 37-5 record while tallying 259 strikeouts in 274.1 innings. Additionally, junior lefty D.J. Mathis returns healthy and looking to provide a strong one-two punch for the Sooners after notching a 2.60 ERA last season.

Adding depth is senior Jadyn Smith and Morgan Hudsonpillar. Both right-handers saw limited action in 2007, but each had very strong outings in the fall and are much improved from last season.

"We are going to need solid outings every time out this season," Gasso said. "It is imperative that we have a one-two punch this season and we don't rely on one pitcher and I'm extremely confident that this four-member class can get it done. Lauren sat out most of the fall with a finger injury and I believe it was a blessing in disguise. The rest of our staff saw a lot more action and really showed significant improvement."

Calling the shots for the pitchers will be sophomore catcher Vandever. The sophomore had an impressive freshman season as she threw out 15 of 29 base stealers from behind the plate, showing off her quick release that Gasso was so drawn to.

In addition to Vandever, Ogden will also be available if Vandever can't play. Ogden, OU's do-everything All-American, started at catcher in 2006 and gave relief to Vandever last season.

"I'm extremely excited about the challenges ahead of us this spring, including how our pitchers and our freshmen respond," Gasso said. "We have a squad that has a lot of experience this season and I think our defense could be a key factor in our success."

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

A CONFERENCE OF EXCELLENCE.

The Big 12 Conference has been synonymous with success in competitive play and in the classroom as it moves through its 12th season, and league members anticipate continued success during the 2007-08 academic year.

In the first 11 years of the Big 12, the conference can boast of 30 team and over 350 individual NCAA Championships. The success continued during 2006-07, with team titles in men's cross country (Colorado) and women's volleyball (Nebraska) in addition to numerous individual crowns. The league added another individual crown this fall, when Texas Tech's Sally Kipyego repeated to earn the NCAA women's cross country title.

Over the past three seasons alone a total of 11 NCAA trophies have been hoisted by Big 12 institutions, with at least one national crown won in 10 of 11 years for the conference, including each of the past 10 seasons.

Through the first 10 Bowl Championship Series title games, the Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in the contest. Big 12 squads have played for the football national championship five times in the last nine years, with berths in 14 BCS games overall.

In basketball, eight men's and women's teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past six seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences. Numerous national honors have been won by men's and women's student-athletes during conference history, with Kevin Durant (Texas) the most recent to garner accolades as the consensus 2007 National Player of the Year.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Big 12 student-athletes also do well in garnering national academic recognition. This past season, two league standouts were named the Academic All-America of the Year in their sport by ESPN The Magazine and the College Sports Information Directors of America. Nebraska's Sarah Pavan (volleyball) boasted a 4.0 grade-point average in Biochemistry, while Aaron Ivey of Oklahoma (baseball) had a 4.0 GPA in Energy Management. Pavan also won the national academic honor presented for all sports. In addition, she was named recipient of the prestigious Honda-Broderick Award as Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. She is the first athlete since the Big 12 was formed to earn the accolade.

Competitive excellence, scholarship and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12 philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and Academic All-Big 12 squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 177 scholars have received more than $1 million in postgraduate financial aid through the first 10 years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 45 million people and more than 18 million television households within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

In the last several years the Big 12 has increased its bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN, FSN and CSTV. Most recently, the league renewed and expanded its multi-year arrangement with ABC/ESPN, Inc.

In its 11-year history, the conference has distributed $913.2 million to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference is headquartered in Irving, Texas.

PATTY GASSO

HEAD COACH | 14TH SEASON | 639-208-2 (.754) RECORD AT OKLAHOMA

As she begins her 14th season at the University of Oklahoma, head coach Patty Gasso has molded the OU softball program into a national power and permanently placed herself among the elite college softball coaches in the country.

The Sooners have reached the Women's College World Series in five of the last eight years and, in the process, advanced to the postseason in each of her 13 seasons. The WCWS run began in 2000 when her team won the NCAA National Championship in OU's first appearance.

Gasso holds an overall record of 639-208-2 (.754) at the University of Oklahoma and continues to distance herself from her counterparts in the Big 12 and her predecessors at OU. She has won more Big 12 games (156-55) than any coach in the league's history and has doubled up every other coach who ever led the Sooners.

Gasso is coming off one of the best seasons in school history as she led the 2007 squad to a 55-8 overall record and a Big 12 Postseason Championship. In addition, Gasso led to the Sooners to a No. 1 ranking in the top 25 poll and OU advanced to its second NCAA Super Regional in three years.

Is she the best coach in the history of Oklahoma softball? Undoubtedly. Is she the greatest coach in Big 12 history? The stats say she is. Could she be one of the best coaches to ever coach college softball? Each season, she continues to build what is a very strong argument.

Currently in her 18th season as a head coach, Gasso has a career collegiate coaching record of 801-267-2 (.749).

Gasso's Sooner teams have finished second or higher nine different times since the inception of the Big 12 in 1996. They have won 74 percent of their Big 12 contests and OU has claimed three Big 12 regular season and three tournament titles under her direction.

Numerous Sooner players have prospered under Gasso's tutelage and garnered national, regional and conference recognition. She has directed 27 All-Americans, 50 All-Midwest Region honorees and 87 all-conference selections. In the Big 12 era, five Sooners have been named Big 12 Player of the Year, two have been selected as Big 12 Freshman of the Year, one as Big 12 Newcomer and Lauren Eckermann was named OU's first Big 12 Pitcher of the Year in 2007. In addition, 2005 graduate Heather Scaglione was a two-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.

The OU softball success under Gasso has also spilled over into the classroom where 68 individuals have earned academic all-conference recognition and six of those have gone on to become Academic All-Americans, including Lana Moran, the 2000 Academic All-American of the Year.

Gasso and her staff have consistently been recognized for their efforts on and off the field. The staff was awarded three consecutive Speedline/NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year awards from 1999-2001, received the national honor in 2000. Gasso and staff have claimed the Midwest honor in five of their 13 seasons with the most recent award coming in 2004. In addition, Gasso has been named the Big 12 and Midwest Region Coach of the Year in 1996, 1999 and 2000.

Gasso's career with the Sooners began in 1995 when she arrived at OU after five successful years at Long Beach City College. Her accomplishments during her tenure at LBCC and since led to Gasso being named to the LBCC Hall of Champions in 2004.

Later during the 2004 summer, Gasso was inducted into the inaugural class of the Long Beach City Baseball and Softball Hall of Fame. Her success in her hometown of Long Beach set the foundation for a spectacular career in Norman.

In her first season at the helm, the Sooners recorded a 43-23 record, finished second in the conference and reached the regional final. Several Sooners received awards for their play during the 1995 season, including 11 players who garnered all-conference accolades (four on the first team).

Gasso and the Sooners reached new heights in 1996, recording a 50-20 record, a first-ever Big 12 Championship, and another regional final berth. OU dominated the inaugural Big 12 Tournament, putting five players on the all-tournament squad. Pitcher Jill Most was named the tourney MVP. Gasso's 1996 squad also became the first team outside of the states of California or Arizona to win the prestigious Pony Tournament.

Gasso was recognized by her peers for her team's performance, earning the Big 12 Coach-of-the-Year award. Again, Sooner players were mentioned as some of the league's best with 10 players receiving All-Big 12 recognition.

Gasso continued the trend of reaching new heights in 1997 when the team recorded the then-second best record in school history (55-19). The season was highlighted by two impressive 12-game winning streaks that helped the team to a second-place finish in the Big 12. For the fourth consecutive year, OU advanced to a NCAA Regional. It marked the first time in school history that OU hosted the event.

The 1998 season was probably one of Gasso's best coaching jobs. However, it wasn't because of the number of wins and losses or the tournaments won by the Sooners. It was due to the fact the team featured six freshmen. Gasso led the young group to a 49-15 record, a second-place conference finish and a No. 1 seed in a NCAA Regional. Five Sooners were named to the all-conference squad and three players were named to the All-Midwest Region team.

In 1999, Gasso led OU to its sixth straight NCAA regional playoff appearance and her team continued to demonstrate that she is one of the top coaches in the country. Along the path to the regional playoffs in Baton Rouge, La., the Sooners seized several awards and honors. For the second time in the three-year history of the Big 12 Conference, OU was crowned regular season champion. The Sooners, who finished with a 40-16 overall record, won the Big 12 with an 11-3 record. Oklahoma fell just short of its goal, the Women's College World Series, but the Sooners proved once again that they were a national power-house. That year, OU defeated several top-25 teams including Louisiana State, Texas, Massachusetts, Oregon, Texas A&M, Missouri and Nebraska. In addition, the Sooners swept the four-game series with state rival Oklahoma State. The last victory against the Cowgirls in the regular season finale clinched the Big 12 title.

Not only were Gasso's players honored for their accomplishments in 1999, but she was also recognized for her solid coaching effort. Gasso was named the 1999 Big 12 Coach of the Year and joined her staff as the Midwest Regional Coaching Staff of the Year.

The 2000 Sooners won their third Big 12 regular season title since the league began in 1996 and hosted their first NCAA Regional since 1997. Behind an explosive offense and a dominant defense, the Sooners rolled to a 66-8 record and won their final eight games of the season to capture the first softball national championship in school history.

Four Sooners earned All-America honors, with Lisa Carey and Ashli Barrett earning first team recognition. Outfielder Erin Evans and pitcher Stewart were both third team All-Americans and Jennifer Stewart was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS.

The accolades rolled in as Gasso was named the Dallas Morning News Big 12 Coach of the Year. She and her staff also earned the Midwest Region Coach of the Year award and Speedline/NFCA Division I National Coaching Staff of the Year.

Following the 2000 National Championship season, Gasso's 2001 squad continued the string of success. The 2001 team went on to match many of the accomplishments of the previous year, including a return trip to the Women's College World Series, a 50-win season and four All-America selections. The team also established its own successes by compiling a school-record 23-game win streak and the program's first Big 12 Tournament title since 1996.

In 2002, Oklahoma went 49-16 and 14-2 in the Big 12. Taking their team motto "Triple Threat" to heart, the Sooners swept their third consecutive NCAA Regional and advanced to a third straight Women's College World Series.

Based on final ranking in NFCA Coaches Top-25 Poll
Qualifying teams must be ranked in the final NFCA poll for all 10 seasons.

The 2003 squad was led by five seniors and sophomore hurler Kami Keiter. OU reached its fourth consecutive WCWS by becoming the first Sooner squad to claim a regional championship away from Norman. OU ended the season with a 47-14 record and won one game before being eliminated from the 2003 WCWS.

Five Sooners were named to the All-Big 12 Conference first team including senior Leah Gulla, who led the conference in batting average, hits and RBI. Underclassmen Keiter, Heather Scaglione and Kristin Vesely joined senior Erian Evans on the all-conference team. The NFCA bestowed All-America honors on Keiter and Gulla, while Evans joined the duo on the Midwest Region Team.

The OU program reached a couple of milestones during the 2003 season. The program recorded its 1,000th victory when the Sooners knocked off Bethune-Cookman in its regional opener on May 15. Justifying its nickname, the Sooners also became the first Big 12 team to reach the 100-win mark in conference play. OU beat Nebraska, 1-0, in Lincoln on March 20, 2003, to be the first squad to reach the century mark.

The 2004 season went down as one of the most memorable in Sooner history. OU battled through injuries during the entire regular season and peaked at the right time. OU, seeded second in the NCAA Region I Championship, stormed through Tucson, Ariz., knocking off No. 1 Arizona and No. 9 Louisiana-Lafayette en route to the Sooners' fifth consecutive WCWS. The Sooners entered the WCWS as the hottest hitting team in the postseason and held onto that recognition, despite being eliminated after winning their opener against Washington.

Gasso's staff was recognized for a fifth time as the NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year, thanks to one of the most memorable postseason runs in NCAA history.

In 2005, the Sooners made their 11th straight NCAA postseason appearance under Gasso and claimed the Regional 14 Championship in front of the home crowd in Norman. Despite missing out on its sixth straight WCWS appearance after dropping a best-of-three series to Arizona in the NCAA Super Regional, the Sooners were one of the best hitting teams in program history (fourth in the nation with a .320 batting average).

The highlight of the season was OU's record 29-game winning streak that spanned 36 days and was extended during play in five different states. The Sooners outscored opponents 218-40, run ruled 10 opponents and claimed five tourney championships during the streak.

In 2006, Gasso led the Sooners to their 13th straight 40-win season. The young Sooner squad made a strong postseason run, winning 12 of its final 15 contests while finishing second in the Big 12 Championship and advancing to the NCAA Regional Finals for the seventh consecutive year.

Gasso and her husband, Jim, reside in Norman with their youngest son, D.J (13). The couple's oldest son, J.T. (19) plays baseball at Eastern Oklahoma State University for former Oklahoma baseball player Aric Thomas.

As a catcher for Oklahoma in 1995-1996, Melyssa Lombardi helped direct the Sooner pitchers to new heights. Now in her 11th season as a full-time assistant coach, Lombardi continues to guide the Sooner pitchers and catchers to even greater accomplishments.

Lombardi was promoted to Associate Head Coach in July of 2007 after assisting the Sooners to a 55-8 overall record during the 2007 season and developing OU's first Big 12 Pitcher of the Year. Lauren Eckermann also earned All-America honors and tied the school record for most wins in a season with 37.

"The title of associate head coach is a testament to the commitment, loyalty and dedication Coach Lombardi has shown for the Oklahoma program," Sooner head coach Patty Gasso said. "She has had many opportunities to go other places, but her heart and soul has always been invested in Oklahoma. She is a huge part of our consistent success by her efforts on the field as well as in recruiting and in the office. We would like to see Coach Lombardi at Oklahoma for a very long time."

Drawing from her playing days as a catcher for the Sooners, Lombardi has been able to lend her valuable experiences in tutoring the Oklahoma catchers and pitchers. During Lombardi's tenure, the Sooners won the 2000 National Championship and have won seven NCAA Regional Championships in 10 postseason appearances. In addition the Sooners have claimed two Big 12 regular season titles (1999, 2000) and two conference tournament championships (2001, 2007).

A former all-conference catcher for the Sooners, Lombardi has also coached the Oklahoma battery to a combined nine All-America honors, 14 All-Region accolades and 20 All-Big 12 selections during her time in Norman.

Lombardi guided catcher Heather Scaglione to two straight All-America first team honors in 2004 and 2005. The only two-time first team All-American in school history was also named the Big 12's Defensive Player of the Year in those same years. Scaglione remains the only player in Big 12 history to receive the honor twice.

In 2004, Lombardi may have had her biggest challenge since joining the OU staff. The pitching coach had to hold together a staff that was missing its No. 1 and No. 2 pitcher for a combined total of 51 games. Despite the shortage of arms, the Sooners were the third best staff (in terms of ERA) in the Big 12. Lombardi's protégé Kami Keiter turned it up another notch during the postseason when she garnered All-Big 12 Tournament and Region I Championship MVP honors.

In 2003, Lombardi guided Keiter out of the shadows of Sooner great Jennifer Stewart and into stardom. In just her second collegiate season, Keiter led the Big 12 in wins (47) and was ranked in the NCAA top 15 in two pitching categories. The Sooner pitching staff combined for an ERA of 1.40, which ranked as the 18th best in the NCAA.

In her first year on the coaching staff as a student assistant in 1997, the OU pitching staff produced one of the lowest earned run averages in school history and in the country. The staff finished with a 1.14 ERA to rank seventh in the nation. The Sooners' pitching performances continued to rank among the nation's elite in 1998 and 1999 and the Sooners' improvement culminated in 2000 with a national championship.

In the national championship season, the team registered a 1.44 ERA which was good enough for second in the Big 12 and ranked 25th nationally. The staff posted 24 shutouts and its best strikeout total in three years with 301. Lombardi helped guide the one-two punch of Lana Moran and Jennifer Stewart that year. Moran went 26-2 and led the Big 12 with a 1.28 ERA. Stewart was a third team All-America selection and the MVP of the Women's College World Series. Lombardi also helped catcher Ashli Barrett reach new heights as the junior was named a first team All-American.

The Glendale, Ariz., native ended her two-year playing career with the Sooners with a spectacular senior season in 1996. Her team-leading .345 batting average was a key factor during OU's Big 12 Conference Championship run that year.

She was also instrumental in helping Jill Most and Jennifer Jaime record two of the best pitching seasons in school history. Lombardi caught all three of Most's wins in OU's conference tournament games and was named to the all-tournament team after going 3-for-8 (.375) at the plate with four RBI, two runs scored, a triple and a stolen base.

Lombardi graduated from OU in 1997 with a degree in health and sports science. The former Melyssa Panzer married John Lombardi on Nov. 10, 2000. The couple currently resides in Norman and is expecting their first child in March.

Tripp MacKay is beginning his first season as an assistant on the Oklahoma softball staff where he is responsible for OU outfielders and offensive instructing.

MacKay is a familiar name in the state of Oklahoma as he began his collegiate career at the University of Florida and played his final two seasons at Oklahoma State. He was a two-time All-American and a member of the 1996 College World Series squad at Oklahoma State. MacKay graduated with a degree in Physical Education from Oklahoma State in 2000.

The second baseman moved on to the professional ranks after being drafted by the Montreal Expos in the 1996 draft. MacKay was instrumental in all aspects of the softball side of the academy including pitching, hitting, fielding, catching, base running and position specific skills.

The Columbus, Miss., native served the last two years as the hitting instructor at Mike Candrea's University of Arizona Summer and Holiday Camps and served as a coach at the University of Oklahoma softball camp this past summer.

Prior to his stint at Dallas Performance Edge, MacKay served as a hitting instructor at the Dallas Baseball Academy of Texas from 2000-04 while also serving as the head coach of the Dallas Tigers baseball team for three years.

Growing up with a baseball family, MacKay's father, Jack MacKay, was a bat designer for Louisville Slugger from 1990-1997.

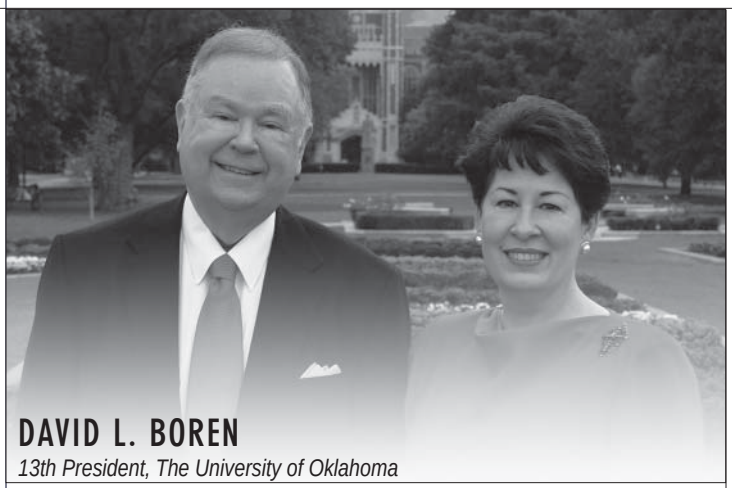
UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT



DAVID L. BOREN

13th President, The University of Oklahoma

David L. Boren, who has served Oklahoma as governor and U.S. senator, became the thirteenth president of the University of Oklahoma in November 1994. He is the first person in state history to have served in all three positions.

Boren is widely respected for his academic credentials, his longtime support of education, and for his distinguished political career as a reformer of the American political system. A graduate of Yale University in 1963, Boren majored in American history, graduated in the top one percent of his class and was elected Phi Beta Kappa. He was selected as a Rhodes Scholar and earned a master's degree in politics, philosophy and economics from Oxford University, England, in 1965.

In 1968, he received a law degree from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, where he was on the Law Review, elected to the Order of the Coif, and won the Bledsoe Prize as the outstanding graduate by a vote of the faculty.

As Oklahoma's governor from 1974 through 1978, Boren promoted key educational initiatives that have had an enduring impact on Oklahoma. Established during his tenure were the Oklahoma Arts Institute, the Scholar-Leadership Enrichment Program, and the Oklahoma Physicians Manpower Training Program, which provides scholarships for medical students and medical personnel who commit to practice in underserved rural areas. Also, the first state funding for Gifted and Talented classes was provided in 1976 and, from 1976 through 1978, Oklahoma ranked first among all states in the percentage increases of funding for higher education.

One of Boren's most far-reaching projects in promoting quality education at all levels is the Oklahoma Foundation for Excellence, which he founded in 1985. The foundation recognizes outstanding public school students and teachers and helps establish private local foundations to help give academic endowment grants to local public schools. As a senator, he was the author of the National Security Education Act in 1992, which provides scholarships for study abroad and for learning additional languages, as well as legislation to restore the tax deductibility of gifts of appreciated property to universities in 1993.

Boren, also a former state legislator, spent nearly three decades in elective politics before becoming the president of the University of Oklahoma. Boren was the youngest governor in the nation when he served from 1974 to 1978. Known as a reformer, Boren campaigned with a broom as his symbol. During his term, he instituted many progressive programs, including conflict-of-interest rules, campaign-financing disclosure, stronger open meeting laws for public bodies, more competitive bidding on state government contracts, and reform of the state's prison system, including expanded education programs for first-time offenders and the largest expansion of the work-release program in state history.

During his time in the U.S. Senate from 1979 to 1994, Boren served on the Senate Finance and Agriculture Committees and was the longest-serving chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. From his days as a state legislator and governor of Oklahoma to Washington, Boren carried a commitment to reform, leading numerous efforts to make government work better for American citizens. As chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee, he strengthened oversight of secret government programs and reformed the procedures for Presidential notice of such programs to Congress.

For more than 10 years, he led the fight for congressional campaign finance reform and for legislation discouraging administration and congressional staff from cashing in on government experience and contacts by becoming lobbyists. In addition, he introduced legislation seeking to limit gifts and travel subsidies that government workers, including members of Congress, can receive from lobbyists. Boren also chaired the special 1992-93 Joint Committee on the Organization of Congress, which produced proposals to make Congress more efficient and responsive by streamlining congressional bureaucracy, reducing staff sizes and reforming procedures to end legislative gridlock.

Boren left the U.S. Senate in 1994 with an approval rating of 9l percent after being reelected with 83 percent of the vote in 1990, the highest percentage in the nation in a U.S. Senate contest in that election year.

Boren served from 1988 to 1997 as a member of the Yale University Board of Trustees. His university experience also includes four years on the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University, where he was chairman of the Department of Political Science and chairman of the Division of Social Sciences. In 1993, the American Association of University Professors presented Boren with the Henry Yost Award as Education Advocate of the Year.

In April 2004, Boren received the Mory's Cup from the Mory's Association at Yale University. In making the presentation to Boren it was noted that he was the first Yale graduate in the university's history extending over three centuries to have served as a Governor, U.S. Senator and President of a major university.

Under Boren's leadership, the University of Oklahoma has developed and emerged as a "pacesetter university in American public higher education," with 20 major new programs initiated since his inauguration. They include establishment of the Honors College, the Charles M. Russell Center for the Study of Art of the American West, a new expository writing program for freshmen modeled on the program at Harvard, an interdisciplinary religious studies program, the Artist-in-Residence Program, the International Programs Center, and the Faculty-in-Residence Program putting faculty family apartments in student residence halls. The Retired Professors Program has been started, bringing 50 retired full professors back to the University to teach freshmen.

The number of new facilities started or completed on the campus during the Boren years has matched the explosion in new programs. Since 1994, almost $1 billion in construction projects have been completed or are under way on OU's three campuses. Among the largest of the recent projects are the $18.7 million renovation and expansion of historic Holmberg Hall, home of music and dance programs; the $67 million National Weather Center; the $19 million addition to the Michael F. Price College of Business; the $17 million Gaylord Hall for journalism and mass communication; the $27 million Stephenson Research and Technology Center; and the $83.5 million stadium project. The Health Sciences Center has a new Student Union, and the new $24 million Stanton L. Young Biomedical Research Center.

Presidential Travel Scholarships, students from 111 countries on campus, more reciprocal international exchange agreements than any other university and the new International Programs Center are all making OU more international. The new Honors College helps to assure that no students need to leave Oklahoma to find an educational experience to match their potential.

In 1995, Boren launched the "Reach for Excellence" fundraising campaign with a five-year goal of $200 million, which was twice as large as any fundraising drive in Oklahoma history. The drive exceeded $500 million, raising OU into the top 15 public universities in the United States in private endowment per capita. Since 1994, endowed professorships have more than quadrupled and the OU donor base has grown from 18,000 to more than 107,000 friends and alumni. During the first 10 years of Boren's tenure over $1 billion in private gifts were donated to the university.

Above all, the Boren years have been marked by an emphasis on putting students first. There is not a university president in the country that is more committed to students as his number one priority. He teaches a freshman-level course in political science each semester and is one of the few presidents of major universities to teach.

Boren is married to Molly Shi Boren, a former judge and English teacher. Mrs. Boren is President Emeritus of the Oklahoma Arts Institute, which provides education programs in nine arts disciplines for high school students from across the state who are gifted in the arts. Molly Boren has two degrees from the University of Oklahoma, a master's degree in English and a Juris Doctorate from the OU College of Law. A native of Seminole, Boren has two children, Carrie Christine Boren, an Episcopal minister, and David Daniel Boren, a member of the United States Congress from Oklahoma. Devoting much of his life to public service, Boren drew from the example of his parents, the late Congressman Lyle H. Boren and Christine Boren.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JOE CASTIGLIONE

Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics/A.D.
The University of Oklahoma

Principle Centered Leader ...Visionary ... Passionate Advocate for Student-Athletes ... Establishes Standards of Excellence & Cultural Values ... Builder of Championship Programs

Each of those characteristics, standing alone, describes the 11th director of athletics in University of Oklahoma history. However, just as he has brought together different groups who are committed to one goal, you must combine those traits to get the complete picture of the person who has led the OU athletics department since 1998.

Joe Castiglione has established a pattern of excellence that few in his profession can match. In an environment where every decision is made reflecting the department's mission statement "Inspiring champions today … Preparing leaders for tomorrow," forming the background, Castiglione is leading the department that has written one of the most successful eras in school history.

Quick to give credit to the student-athletes and coaches, the staff and the university administration, the donors and the fans, Castiglione was the one who implemented the changes that led to success. When he was hired in 1998, the search committee believed they had found a rising star in the field of intercollegiate athletics administration. Everything that has happened since his arrival at OU has cemented that reputation.

The accomplishments of the department and its student-athletes, coaches and staff have earned national recognition for the university and the department. Recognized as the 2007 PRISM Award winner by the School of Sports Management at the University of Massachusetts, OU was just the second Division I winner and all of the programs recognized by the selection panel were started under Castiglione's leadership. The PRISM Award annually recognizes one Division I intercollegiate athletics department that demonstrates industry-leading excellence and innovation in sports management.

His peers have honored him for the department's achievements as well. In October 2004, the Bobby Dodd Foundation named him Athletics Director of the Year. In 2003, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame. In June 2001, he received the General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement from the All-American Football Foundation. The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named him Central Region AD of the Year in 2000.

Perhaps his most unique achievement over the last nine years for Castiglione, though, came when he received his master's of education degree from OU in May 2007. To understand the need for education and lifelong learning, OU's student-athletes just have to look at their AD who started and completed his master's degree while running the department and maintaining his priorities to his family.

The 11th director of athletics at the University of Oklahoma has celebrated six national team championships and numerous conference team titles; record numbers of graduating student-athletes and record-setting grade point averages for Sooner teams; dramatically increased donor giving; huge increases in ticket sales for all sports; major facility improvements, and development and construction of new facilities. And, as aggressive as the push to improve, expand and excel has been, he has produced a balanced budget in every year of his tenure, a first since the early 1980s.

Other highlights of Castiglione's tenure include:

- An annual or consistent finish among the top 25 in the standings for the Director's Cup which measures overall athletics success in seven of the last eight years, including an all-time program best of 15th in 2003-2004.
- A total of 25 OU teams that have ranked among the top 10 in season-ending polls.
- A school-record and Big 12-best graduation rate of 74% in 2003.
- Three appearances in the BCS National Championship Game and the college football national championship in 2000.
- Appearances by the men's and women's basketball teams in their respective Final Fours in 2002.
- A Division I record of 74 combined victories produced by the football team and both basketball squads in the 2001-02 school year.
- An average of more than 17 out of 20 OU teams per year represented in postseason play.

Credited with energizing OU's fund-raising efforts, Castiglione was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign, Great Expectations: The Campaign For Sooner Sports. The campaign ended in November of 2003 with more than $125 million raised or pledged. Unique in its approach, the largest fund-raising effort in OU athletics history included projects that impact each of OU's nearly 500 student-athletes and has become a national model for intercollegiate athletics.

Castiglione has cultivated numerous million dollar gifts, including the largest capital gifts in history for athletics at OU, and some of the largest ever for the university as a whole. He has driven dramatic facilities projects, including a $70 million project at Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Others include a $17.2 million renovation of Lloyd Noble Center; phase I of The Headington Family Tennis Complex; John Jacobs Field; the Everest Training Facility, one of the largest indoor practice areas in the country; and Phase II of the soccer-tennis complex. Other projects completed in his tenure have included the redesign of the Sooner football practice fields; the Port Robertson Wrestling Facility; phase I of the Sooner Soccer Complex and John Crain Field as well as additional renovations to the McCasland Field House; L. Dale Mitchell Park, the Charlie Coe Golf Learning Center, the OU Softball Complex and Barry Switzer Center. His administrative work, which has seen significant reorganization and the hiring of nine head coaches, also included the negotiation of multi-million dollar multi-media rights contract that produces more than $5 million in annual revenue for the athletics department.

Castiglione was hired on April 30, 1998, after serving as athletics director at Missouri. In his 17-year career with the Tigers, Castiglione, who was named director of athletics at Missouri on Dec. 15, 1993, was credited with rebuilding sports programs, hiring outstanding coaches, implementing an innovative master plan for facilities, inspiring record-setting increases in fund-raising and balancing the budget in each of his five years as athletics director.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the University's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007. He began his career as the sports promotions director at Rice. He then worked a year as director of athletic fund-raising at Georgetown before being hired in 1981 at Missouri as director of communications and marketing.

Active on the national and conference level, he is currently serving on the Board of Directors for the Collegiate Women Sports Awards, the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board, and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. He has been named to the executive committee of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. He served two terms as chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors and is a past president of the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He served a four-year term on the NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet and the NCAA Baseball Committee and is a past member of the NCAA Football Special Events Certification Committee. He recently agreed to serve on the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group. In 2007, he was named to the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione was born Oct. 8, 1957. He is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Robert, Jr., born on December 20, 1996, and Jonathan Edmund, born on March 21, 2000.

BIG 12 CHAMPIONS

The 2007 Oklahoma softball team completed one of the most successful seasons in school history after finishing with an overall record of 55-8 and winning the Big 12 Postseason Championship for the third time in school history. OU's final record marked the second-highest winning percentage in school history, right behind the 2000 National Championship squad that finished with a 66-8 record. The Sooners finished at No. 9 and No. 11 in the polls, marking their sixth top-10 finish in the last eight years.

The Sooners opened the season on fire as their 23-0 start marked the best opening to a season in school history. Oklahoma was dominant in the non-conference as it claimed the Diamond Fun and Sun Classic title and also run ruled eventual National Champion Arizona en route to the Judi Garman Classic Championship.

Oklahoma finished second in the Big 12 Conference with a 14-4 record before sweeping through the Big 12 Championship where pitcher Lauren Eckermann took home MVP honors.

Following its Big 12 Tournament victory, Oklahoma jumped to No. 1 in the polls for the first time all season and first time ever in the regular season. The only other time the Sooners were ranked No. 1 in the poll was in the final one released after Oklahoma claimed the 2000 National Championship, its first in history.

The Sooners advanced to their 14th straight NCAA Tournament, including 13 consecutive under head coach Patty Gasso. Oklahoma earned its highest national seed ever, No. 3, and was sent to Amherst, Mass., where it claimed its seventh regional championship with a win over Colgate and two wins over host school UMass. OU snapped the Minutewomen's nation-best winning streak of 27 and ended their 33-game home win streak.

OU moved on to its second Super Regional in the last three years, but encountered a red-hot DePaul squad that swept the Sooners in front of sellout records crowds at the OU Softball Complex.

Despite its unexpected exit in the Super Regional, many Sooners earned national recognition. Senior Norrelle Dickson became OU's fifth Big 12 Player of the Year since the inception of the conference while junior Lauren Eckermann took home Co-Big 12 Pitcher of the Year honors. Oklahoma claimed seven All-Big 12 selections as well as six All-Midwest Region honors.

The Sooners tied with Tennessee for the most All-America honors with four. Dickson became only the second player in school history to claim three All-America accolades as she was named to the first team while Susan Ogden and Samantha Ricketts highlighted the second team and Eckermann rounded out the third team.

Ricketts capped off the season as she became the first player in OU history to be named one of three finalists for USA Softball's National Player of the Year. Dickson joined her on the semifinalist group of 10.

2007 REVIEW

300/200/100

With the 100th stolen base of her career against Iowa State (April 6), Norrelle Dickson became the first player in OU and Big 12 history to record at least 300 hits, 200 runs and 100 stolen bases in her career. Additionally, Dickson is one of only 12 players in NCAA history to accomplish the feat. The senior finished her career with 328 hits, 234 runs and 110 stolen bases.

ECKERMANN TIES SINGLE SEASON WINS RECORD

Juco transfer Lauren Eckermann led the junior college ranks in ERA in 2006 and the junior didn't miss a beat in Division I action in 2007. Eckermann tied the OU single season record for wins in a season (37) after defeating UMass in the regional final. Eckermann shares the record with Jennifer Stewart, who also recorded 37 wins during the 2001 season.

RICKETTS SETS SINGLE SEASON RBI RECORD

Sophomore Samantha Ricketts set OU and Big 12 single season records with 81 RBI. She broke the previous OU and Big 12 mark of 77, set by former Sooner Lisa Carey in 2000. Ricketts broke the seven-year record with her three-run game-winning homer in the NCAA Tournament opening game against Colgate.

DICKSON BREAKS ANOTHER RECORD

With three runs against Kansas on April 29, senior Norrelle Dickson broke her own OU and Big 12 single season record for runs scored. The previous record was 66 runs in an entire season. Dickson owns the new mark with 71 runs scored in 2007.

DICKSON EARNS BIG 12 BATTING TITLE

Senior Norrelle Dickson led the Big 12 in batting average for the second straight year with a .453 average for the 2007 season. That mark also broke the OU single season record of .451 set by former Sooner Kristin Vesely in 2005.

DICKSON NAMED BIG 12 PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Senior Norrelle Dickson was named the Big 12 Player of the Year and became the first Sooner to earn the honor since Kelli Braitsch in 2001 and the fifth Sooner in the 12-year history of the Big 12 Conference. The lefty slapper led the conference in batting for the second straight year with a .453 batting average, including an even better .484 average in Big 12 action. She led all Big 12 players in hits, runs and batting average in both overall games and conference only action. She also set the Big 12 single season record for runs scored with 71 this season.

ECKERMANN SHARES BIG 12 PITCHER OF THE YEAR

Junior pitcher Lauren Eckermann also highlighted the individual conference awards as the juco transfer was named Co-Big 12 Pitcher of the Year, sharing the honor with Texas A&M's Amanda Scarborough. Eckermann becomes the first Sooner to ever win Big 12 Pitcher of the Year honor since the award began in 2002. Eckermann was a key component to the squad's success as the juco-transfer finished fourth in the country with a 37-5 record. She led the league in wins, innings pitched, appearances, games started, shutouts and complete games in all games.

RICKETTS ONE OF THREE PLAYER OF THE YEAR FINALISTS

The awards kept pouring in for OU sophomore Samantha Ricketts as the first baseman was named one of three finalists for USA Softball Player of the Year by the Amateur Softball Association, the National Governing Body of Softball in the United States. Ricketts joined fellow sophomore Kaitlin Cochran of Arizona State and senior pitcher Monica Abbott of Tennessee on the list. Ricketts is the first Sooner in history to ever be named a finalist (top 3) while two other Sooners (Norrelle Dickson in 2007 and Leah Gulla in 2003) have been named semifinalists (top 10).

AMHERST REGIONAL CHAMPS

The Sooners claimed their seventh regional championship in the last eight years after sweeping through the field in three games at the Amherst Regional ... OU is 28-3 in regional action, excluding Super Regionals, since 2000 ... OU hit an uncharacteristic .237 in the regional while Lauren Eckermann, who threw all 21 innings for OU, notched a 0.67 ERA ... If there was an MVP honor, Eckermann would have been the most likely candidate as she went 3-0 with 19 strikeouts and only one walk. She held opponents to a .155 batting average (11-of-71) ... Samantha Ricketts was also a strong candidate after recording four of OU's 10 RBI in the three games, including a three-run game-winning homer in the opening game against Colgate ... The Sooners snapped UMass' nation-best win streak of 27 straight and its home winning streak of 33 consecutive wins ... The Sooners were a No. 3 national seed and the highest seed not to host a regional.

SUPER REGIONAL LEFTOVERS

The Sooners were swept by No. 14 DePaul by scores of 3-0 and 7-2 ... Oklahoma made its second appearance in a Super Regional since the new format began three years ago ... The losses marked the first time in history OU had dropped NCAA Tournament games at the OU Softball Complex ... Prior to playing DePaul, the Sooners owned a 15-0 record at Marita Hynes Field in NCAA postseason action ... The back-to-back losses marked the first time all season the Sooners lost two games in a row ... Traci Dickenson and Norrelle Dickson were the only Sooners to record multiple hits in the Super Regional ... Jamie Fox and Lindsey Vandever teamed up with back-to-back home runs in the second game ... Sunday's attendance of 1645 broke the previous single game attendance mark of 1623 set on April 28, 2004 against Oklahoma State ... Saturday's attendance of 1456 marked the fourth best in school history.

SOONERS CLAIM POSTSEASON BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP

The Sooners claimed their third Big 12 Championship on May 12 as they defeated Texas Tech, 6-3, in the title game. Oklahoma, a No. 2 seed, knocked off Kansas (5-0) and No. 18 Missouri (7-1) on its way to the finals. The Sooners also played all three of their tournament games within a 24-hour span due to weather adjustments. It marked OU's third Big 12 Tournament trophy after winning the title in the inaugural year of the Big 12 (1996) and then again in 2001. The Sooners have collected five total Big 12 trophies, including the three postseason trophies as well as the three regular season titles in 1999 and 2000.

DEAR SOONER FANS,

The time has arrived to start thinking about Sooner Softball 2008. We are excited about the upcoming season and have worked diligently in the fall preparing for another run at the National Championship.

Our team returns three All-Americans, five Midwest Region selections, five All-Big 12 members and we will be defending our Big 12 Tournament Championship we won last season. With the addition of a very talented freshman class, this team has the ingredients to compete for the Big 12 and National Championship.

We have great expectations in 2008, the largest being a sixth trip to the Women's College World Series and a chance to bring another National Championship to the University of Oklahoma. By purchasing a season ticket, you will join us in our journey. It is very important to have that "home field advantage" at the Marita Hynes Field. Your support in the stands is vital to our success. We have 22 home games on the schedule with top quality competition. You won't want to miss it!

Sooner Softball is a great value for you and your family! We can't wait for the season to start and would like for you to be there to experience the excitement with us!

See you in the stands!
